Victim Of Shooting Is In Serious Condition At Hospital Here

KINGS BEACH—Mrs. Lois Epps of Kings Beach was being held in the Placer County jail at Auburn for investigation of assault with a deadly weapon while her husband, Charles, is in serious condition at the Tahoe Forest Hospital with a bullet wound in his right side.

Mrs. Epps and her husband, a cement finisher, tell a different story of how he was shot with a .32 calibre automatic Monday in their trailer home at Kings Beach. Sheriff William Scott says Mrs. Epps told him Epps returned to their trailer after taking money she had earned as a waitress and gambling it away in a Nevada resort. During an argument about the money Epps pointed the gun and threatened to shoot her and then himself.

Scott said Mrs. Epps told him she and Epps were fully clothed and laying on their bed when she heard a loud noise. A short time later she discovered Epps had shot himself. She called Dr. Walton Prescott who reported the shooting to Deputy Angelo Chiaratti. Epps when questioned here admitted the argument about the money but declared he was showing Mrs. Epps how to use the gun and it was fired while she was holding it.

The shooting was reported to have occurred sometime after midnight and Epps was brought to the hospital about 6:30 a.m. that day.

The Epps moved to Kings Beach in June from Salinas and he had been working on new construction here.

Three Held After Hobo Is Beaten

Three people, a woman and two men were taken off a Southern Pacific freight train here Tuesday morning at 5:30 o'clock and held for Placer County sheriff's officers after they were accused of beating a fourth hobo and tossing him off the train three miles east of Colfax earlier that morning.

The victim, Edward Tipton of an unannounced address, said he was also robbed of over $100 but a search of his accused attackers did not reveal any money.

Those taken into custody here by Constable N. F. Dolley and the two local deputies sheriff, Emery Lander and Roy Waters, were identified as Rose Smiddy, 41, and her husband, James, 28 of Indianapolis and Vern Asa Drake, 42, of Kansas City, Missouri.

The latter is said by Constable Dolley to have admitted fighting with Tipton but said the latter started the fracas after they had had a few drinks.

Tipton's condition in an Auburn hospital was reported as satisfactory.

Wolverines Ready For Opening Game At Douglas Friday

The Tahoe Truckee High School Wolverines, under their new head coach, Stan Drakulich, open the football season for local fans on Friday night, September 14, as they take on the Douglas Tigers in a conference tilt under the lights with the game time set for 7:30. The game will be on the Tigers home grounds at Gardnerville.

The Wolverines, winners in two of the three previous meetings between the Western Nevada Conference "A" division schools, will be shooting to make it three in a row. Coach Drakulich, with his assistants, Dan Holub and Dick Hampt, indicate that this year's team shows good strength in the center of the line with letterwinners Jim Harris, Frank Giovannoni, Scott Gilmore and Ken Lavery carrying the load.

Bob Trask, a three-letterman and the elected captain for the season, will anchor the line at left end this year, thereby giving the cardinal and white squad a capable pass receiver and blocker as well as a fine field general. Floyd Cooper appears to be a capable signal caller from the quarterback spot, although he is running with a somewhat inexperienced backfield. The other players pushing for starting berths for the first team are Buzz Trainor at fullback, Dave Holman at end, Bob Williams at tackle and Barry Graton at guard.

The Douglas Tigers, who experienced a losing season last year, are once again under the guidance of Walt Powers and undoubtedly are out to improve their record all they can in 1956.

Coach Drakulich has indicated that the probable starting lineup for the Wolverines will be Harris at center, Giovannoni and Gilmore at guards, Lavery and Kit Schull at tackles, Dave Rickert and Bob Trask at ends, Roger Halbert at fullback, Cooper at quarterback and Dean Herzog, Ken Osburn or Dean Holbrook at the two half-back positions.

The Tahoe Truckee student body, always the conference's finest backers and rooters, hope that a large number of enthusiastic fans in the various communities of the district will make the trip to Gardnerville Friday night.

State Patrolman Martin Sturcke said the driver told him he ran into some dust and loose gravel, hit the brakes and lost control. The car rolled over several times.

The others injured were Mrs. Aiko Kashiwabara, 31, Kikuno Kashiwabara, 64, all of Penryn and Miss Reiko Takei, 16 and Fumiko Takei, 43, both of Los Angeles.

Tiny, Valuable Watch Reported Stolen At Lake

Police yesterday put a $2,500 price tag on a tiny wrist watch "the size of a dime."

Authorities at Kings Beach, in reporting the loss, said the Dickey cabin was burglarized between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Fewer Deer Seen As Hunting Date In District Nears

Boundry Explained For 3 Day Either-Sex Hunt In District

Last winter's ample precipitation has improved range forage after a preceding period of poor growth and the condition of deer for the two inland seasons appears to be good, the department of fish and game reports. The high Sierra season in this district opens on Saturday, September 22.

Chief of Patrol Bill LaMarr who was here last week making a survey of the area, reported that according to his information, there are fewer deer in the district than in recent years, but that they are in good condition.

Reports indicate that the buck kill will be about equal to last year's or slightly less. However, in many counties, the three-day either-sex seasons are expected to result in a sizeable kill.

The department claims this may help lessen pressure on the available forage. Incidentally, this opinion is not unanimous among the sportsmen. The department "experts" predict the either-sex hunt will result in producing more and healthier deer in later years of the cycle because of a better balance between deer numbers and food supply.

Hunters are urged to familiarize themselves with the laws governing the deer season before going into the field.

The final three-day either-sex hunt will not affect this immediate area. The line as explained by Chief LaMarr starts on the Alpine County line and extends down the crest of the Sierra north to a mile west of Weber Lake at Coppin's Meadow, then it follows the road to Weber Lake, then down the Weber Lake road to Highway 89, then along 89 to where the highway crosses Bickford Meadow, then down the Little Truckee to the old Dog Valley highway to the first summit out of Verdi.

The line from there goes down the road into Dog Valley and around the Dog Valley ranger station then down the Long Valley road to Verdi and the state line. Either-sex hunting is prohibited east and south of this line.

BOYS INJURED WHEN BICYCLE IS UPSET

Douglas Nelson, nine year old son of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Nelson, suffered severe injuries and a small companion, John McGlade, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGlade, was bruised up some in a bicycle accident near the Nelson home in Gateway Park Tuesday evening.

The two boys were evidently riding double on the bicycle and coasting fast down the street when a wheel hit loose gravel on the pavement, causing them to lose control and they were thrown to the pavement.

State Patrolman William Gautsche, a neighbor rushed to the aid of the two and it was necessary to remove Douglas to the Tahoe Forest Hospital.

Sees Friends—
Dr. and Mrs. George Hahn and infant daughter, Joy, visited local friends Monday before returning to their home at Sacramento.

We know that no one wants to run down a child with a car or truck and that makes it doubly hard for us to understand why so many people take unnecessary and foolhardy risks when driving in areas where children are apt to be playing. Last week we asked in this column that extreme care be taken where children are playing or may dash into a street. Apparently a lot of people paid little heed or maybe they think it can't happen to them. Our personal observation since school opened has revealed that careless or thoughtless auto drivers are not taking even lawful care. We note them cutting corners, speeding by schools, going into residential intersections at a speed unlawful on the highway and in general trusting to luck that no child or group of children will be in their way. PLEASE take it easy and save yourself a lifetime of remorse. Sure, you may be right, but a little more thoughtfulness and caution may save a life.

You have only until tonight to register to vote at the general election. Be sure you are registered.

Archer Shows It Can Be Done By Bagging Deer With Bow, Arrow

There are those who say it can't be done, but Jim Onstaf of San Francisco laid the proof on the line—he killed a deer with a bow and arrow.

A guest at Donner Pines on Donner Lake, Onstaf took his trusty bow and went to Beacon Hill. Within 20 minutes, he had bagged a nice forked horn and was on his way home.

The archery season opened in this area last Saturday and a lot of hunters have sallied forth but Onstaf's kill marks the No. 1 reported here.

Tragic Mishap On Tahoe Results In Three Drowning

High Waves Cause Five To Be Thrown Into Lake At South End

One of the worst accidents on Lake Tahoe for more than 20 years Sunday cost the lives of three people when the boat in which they were riding was struck by a huge wave spilling them into the cold water.

Search was being conducted for the bodies of Joseph Texaro, 40, Berkeley, Michael Brusasco, 70, of Oakland, Texaro's father in law and Mrs. Irene Ramos, 32, of Berkeley, victims of the tragedy.

Two others, Judy Brunk, 17, of Berkeley and Marlene Perkins, 18, Portland, Ore., were also thrown from the boat, but were rescued. Panic and the rough, cold water thwarted rescue efforts. An attempt by the girls to save Brusasco was futile. Texaro was pulled to the side of the boat twice but each time slipped away.

The operator of the boat, Raymond Kechley, 19, Berkeley, dived twice to save Texaro without success. Mrs. Ramos, who was said to be a good swimmer, was carrying a purse when she was hurled from the craft and when a life jacket was thrown to her, she fought it off and clutched her purse.

The accident occurred in about 300 feet of water between Bijou from where the boat took off, and Emerald Bay where it was bound. Three of the boat's occupants, Kechley and Texaro's son, Kenny, 17, and Russell Bacon, 19, Berkeley, were not thrown out. The survivors returned to Al Tahoe to report the accident.

There were life jackets in the boat but were not being worn at the time.

The waves were about two feet high when the boat left Al Tahoe so the group could witness efforts to clear a slide on the highway at Emerald Bay. As they proceeded, Kechley told investigators, the waves got higher and were more than three feet when they decided to turn back.

"I saw a huge wave coming toward us and I knew it was going to hit, but there was nothing I could do," Kechley told Deputy Sheriff Al Coombs of El Dorado County. The boat lurched and spun but did not capsize.

Members of the coast guard auxiliary were notified and rushed to the scene in record time.

Fire Departments May Form Mutual Aid Pact In Area

Fire chiefs and their assistants from Kings Beach, Tahoe City and Truckee met last Friday evening at the Tahoe City fire station to discuss mutual assistance plans.

Also attending the session to lend aid in the program was Nelson Stone, assistant Truckee district forest ranger.

Another meeting of the group is scheduled for Truckee on October 16 after legal questions involved have been resolved.

Chief N. F. Dolley of the Truckee department, expressed confidence in the proposal that the three departments pool their resources in event of a major fire in any of the three districts. It was pointed out that the three towns comprise the points of a triangle and are only 15 or so miles from each other and the three departments could, if necessary required, be concentrated within half an hour.

The fast growth of the areas in question has provided an increasing fire condition and the officials are hopeful that a mutual agreement can be reached which will prove valuable to all concerned in case of an emergency.

Attending the meeting at Tahoe were Chief Al Henry, and Assistant Pete Vanni of Tahoe City; Chief Max Kreuger and Assistant Curly Mason of Kings Beach and Chief Dolley and Assistant Glen Coffey and Stone of Truckee.

X-Ray Unit To Be Here On Monday

New Industry Will Be Started Here As Plan Revealed

Clements, Lewis Hosts At Dinner To Announce $250,000 Plant

A new $250,000 industry to be known as the Sierra Rock Products Company will make its bow in this district about April 15th.

Announcement of the new concern was made at a dinner meeting held Saturday night at Smart's by Ernest L. Clements, president of Clements & Company of Centerville and G. E. Lewis, Truckee contractors, who will be partners in the new business. All contractors, their wives and several special guests made up the 80 or more present to enjoy the evening as guests of Sierra Rock Products.

Clements, a veteran construction contractor, past president of the Associated General Contractors of California, and well known here where his firm did highway work, said work will start on the project just as soon as weather and snow conditions permit next year.

The plans, as announced by Lewis and Clements, will provide for all types of aggregate, concrete, plant mix, asphalt and other required building materials. It is the purpose of the firm to wholesale this material to local contractors but not to compete with them in the contracting business. All types of equipment for transporting the materials will be available to contractors within a radius of 50 miles precluding the necessity of long and expensive hauls, the spokesman declared.

The plant will be equipped to turn out 300 tons per hour if the need arises.

Local plant mix operators may have their trucks charged at the plant any time, but the company will not accept contracts for work unless local contractors are unable to comply with requirements, Clements declared.

Accompanying Clements to the dinner were Mrs. Clements, Claude Young, production engineer for Clements & Company and Norrie Stabert, secretary-treasurer.

Lewis arranged the dinner and acted as master of ceremonies to introduce the guests and his new partner.

The plant will be located two miles west of Truckee just east of Donner Memorial State Park on U. S. Highway 40. An access road to the new freeway will be provided.

Clements expressed confidence in the future of the area and said that although building has been setting records during the past 10 years in this region, "we haven't seen anything yet."

Lewis will be in charge of the plant and office when it is opened next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. William Slack of Healdsburg, California, also called on August 15 to tell Mr. and Mrs. Slack here of the arrival of a son, William Henry, Jr.

FIRE ALONG TRACK BLAMED ON BRAKE

Answering a report from Cliff Ellis on Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, the forest service suppression crew quickly extinguished a fire which started 300 yards west of the underpass on Route 89 a mile west of Truckee.

Henry Toccalini, dispatcher, said the fire started from a hot brake shoe on the railroad and was burning in some ties and weeds when discovered.

Due to recent lack of moisture there is a high fire hazard in the forests and every person has a responsibility to use extreme caution with all types of fire in the woods.

CARD OF THANKS

To the Women's Club of Tahoe, Tahoe City, Calif.

Dear old Friends and Neighbors: I wish hereby to offer public homage to your members for the generous, humane service you have paid me by staging a special food sale benefit in my behalf on Friday, August 31st in Tahoe City. The very liberal check you have forwarded will assist me considerably through an extremely trying and inopportune illness and will serve as a perpetual reminder of the good will and generosity of the club members, and their friends, who worked so tirelessly and unselfishly for the success of the project.

I wish to thank each and every one who contributed (some anonymously) to my welfare in any way. My deepest gratitude to both the known and unknown friends alike. Your kindness will be remembered always with genuine appreciation. SWANEE.

New Post Office Gets Approval At Tahoma

AUBURN—After an hour long debate on whether the county planning commission is being bypassed, the board of supervisors approved an application by S. D. Sartor of Tahoma Resort, Lake Tahoe, to build a postoffice building.

Supervisor J. B. Paolini made the motion for approval after explaining to the board Sartor wanted to construct the building on his own property almost directly on the other side of State Highway 89 from where his present postoffice building is located.

Sartor also runs a grocery store in connection with the postoffice. Paolini pointed out that although Sartor's land is zoned residential, he has maintained the postoffice and store on the land before the county zoning became effective.

The supervisors also heard testimony Sartor earlier had applied for a permit to construct a 300 foot square postoffice and 1,600 square foot building or a drugstore but withdrew that application in favor of one for the postoffice alone.

Supervisor Wesley Waddle, who cast the negative vote on the application, said he voted so because he believed the application should be acted upon by the planning commission.

WOMEN'S CLUB AT TAHOE HOLDS MEET

TAHOE CITY — The Women's Club of Tahoe met at Bacci's Inn Thursday, Sept. 17th with twenty members present. Mrs. Sylvia Cushman of Tahoma was welcomed as a new member. A short business meeting followed the luncheon.

Mrs. Stella Watson, chairman of the food sale held August 31, gave her report. The proceeds from the sale, plus donations from friends of Eleanor Swanson, came to a sizeable amount and a check was sent to "Swanee" with the best wishes of the club for a speedy recovery. Mrs. Watson thanked all who donated food and money to this fund.

It was voted to entertain the veterans from Reno again this year at the next meeting to be held September 20th. After the meeting Mrs. P. G. Friday, state foundation fund chairman, gave an interesting talk on the purposes and work of the fund.

GUESTS AT TAHOE VISTA

TAHOE VISTA — Mrs. Anne Blauie has as houseguests for two weeks Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Jahn of Lawrence, Kansas. Jahn is Mrs. Blauie's brother. Last Friday they went to San Francisco and to visit relatives in Burlingame. Mrs. Blauie returned Monday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Jahn returned to their home. It was their first trip to the west and they were much taken with beautiful Lake Tahoe. On the Labor Day holiday, Mrs. Blauie had as her guest her cousins, Virgil, Thelma and Larry Kuch of Burlingame.

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

Don't know if you've noticed it or not, but don't these windy afternoons and chilly mornings have a little touch of winter in them? I've been told the best way to put the "whammy" on normal conditions is to start talking or writing about them. So now we can see what happens. As a rule, a few early snow flurries are in order primarily as a reminder to the business people that it is later than you think. So get going, and get all of those necessary jobs done now, and be ready.

The Mt. Lincoln chair lift in the Sugar Bowl is beginning to show up from the highway. Especially that service road that has been cut to the top. Soda Springs Ski Corporation's construction is progressing rapidly, as is the addition to Carl Buek's Ski Shop. Carl's shop was planned as a three section construction job. This is the second section now being erected. Next year it will be complete. Not only as a building, but as a rental and sales shop also.

Bill Doolin has his heavy equipment hard at work just below Kingsvale. He is building a large parking area adjacent to Highway 40 which will service a rope tow development that is also being installed. We had envisioned a very large development for that area, of which we wrote in a previous edition. Guess all of those people with thousands of dollars of loose change couldn't be lured into our area though.

Donner Summit Post No. 811 of the American Legion is continuing to grow in membership and activity. Plans call for a veterans' day breakfast on November 11, which Bill Rutherford inaugurated about seven years ago. All of the past breakfasts have been huge successes, and this one will probably surpass them all. A progressive dinner is also contemplated by the post, which will encompass all of the resorts in the area.

Grass Valley Firm Wins County Audit Award

NEVADA CITY — A bid of an amount not to exceed $1,450 for auditing the books of Nevada County offices, including the three judicial district courts, by Brunner and Trathen of Grass Valley was accepted by the Nevada County Board of Supervisors last week.

Only other bid for the job was the low bid of LeRoy I. Harris of Nevada City who had bid to do the auditing, including the courts, for $1,100.

However, some members of the board said they felt maybe Brunner and Trathen could do the job in less time and a motion by Henry Loehr of Truckee to take the low bid died for lack of a second. The motion to accept Brunner and Trathen's bid was made by Guy N. Robinson and seconded by John L. Frank.

therefor will be paid at the offices of John L. Larue, Union Building, Nevada City, California, on the 27th day of September, 1956, at 1:30 P. M. of said day.

New Standard plant foods help the West produce better meals at less cost

Broadcasting of Standard's new uniform chemically blended plant food by airplane can turn sparse hilly acres into rich pasture for livestock

RICHER SOIL means better crops, yet the West has never had enough soil-building fertilizer. To help meet farmers' needs, Standard opens a $16 million plant next month which will produce petroleum-derived plant food* in pellet form for Western soils and crops.

This uniform blend of essential plant growth elements is so effective that 400 pounds on an acre of grassland often enables it to feed 3 to 5 times more livestock. On other crops, too, it increases profits per acre. With this better use of Western land, your family will get tastier, more nourishing meals for every budget dollar.

More Students

Had the pleasure a few days ago to meet John Corbin, our new Tahoe Truckee school district superintendent. He lives just stone's throw from us on the golf course. Mr. Corbin was telling me that if the number of children keeps gaining it will be necessary to employ another teacher at Kings Beach. Another bus is already running on the west side of the lake. The people welcome the new superintendent to the district.

To Tour Europe

Had a delightful dinner with

Eugene Jarvis at his paradise in the mountains before he closed for the winter—the dining part, that is. He has made many improvements. There are bushes covered with tiny lights to make it a veritable fairy land. Gene tells us he will leave on a trip to Europe on the 25th of this month, flying from San Francisco to New York and then by air to London, France, Italy, Germany and many other interesting places.

Honeymooners

Galen Young and his bride were here for two or three weeks spending their honeymoon. They were married a couple of weeks ago. Galen is the son of Dr. Charles S.

Young who has a beautiful home on the lake front at Kings Beach, and is a nephew of Dee Siple of Tahoe Vista.

Staying In

Joe and Ann Dolce inform me that they intend to stay in this winter and will build 13 new cabins on their property which already has very nice apartments and cottages and is called La Dolce Villa. Around about December they will most likely take a trip to New York just for a short visit.

Visitors

The Dave Ashtons had as their guests during the past week his sister, Rosalie and her husband, Bill Pappas from San Jose. Bill is manager of the Union Oil Distributing Company at San Jose and with them was their daughter, Penny and son, Peter. Bill practiced water skiing while here but he didn't do so good. Any way they all had a wonderful time and he visited the Lions Club while here. He is a member in San Jose.

Teletype

I hear young Stephen Port is doing real swell at San Diego where he is training in a teletype and communications school. Steve is one of our Kings Beach products and attended the Tahoe Truckee high school.

Vacation Time

Hueg and Mrs. Johnson of Oakland are our neighbors for a stay. Their daughters, Karen and Jeri, are with them and also with them they have Mr. and Mrs. George Beitzel and son, Paul, from Oak Grove where they have a ranch of 200 acres. Played horse shoes with them last week but they were too much for me. But at a game of darts it was a different matter and I can say, meet the champ.

About Town

Betty Hutton cutting capers with Wingy Grober at Cal Neva Lodge. Wingy at the base viol was excellent. Loucille Ball making the rounds at Bal Tabarin and the North Shore Club. Sophie Miedema up from San Pedro for a stay. Walt Mandeville cooking up a Spanish dish for the Lions at the gun club, good too. Dave Ashton water skiing with some damself. He cuts a fine figure. Lots of vacationists packing up to depart for the warmer climes; oh, what they will be missing. The weekend saw three of the big casinos close for the season. They are Cal Neva Lodge, the Bal Tabarin and the North Shore Club. Thanks to the clubs staying open, among them the Monte Carlo and the Crystal Bay Club. Ed Malley has built, or rather Fred Miller did the building, of a very fine office and residence right at the line at Crystal Bay in California. Sheriff Bill Scott stayed at Ludlow's for a couple of nights.

Visit

George and Mrs. Kelly paid us a surprise visit last weekend. They have a home on Lakeview Drive in Kings Beach and are now living at Glendora. George is with the state contractors' license board and it was sure nice to see them. They say they enjoy the Sierra Sun each week.

Buys Lots

Angelo Shiaratti, the popular deputy sheriff, has bought a couple of lots on the short cut and will build as soon as possible. He will, of course, be here all winter to help with the trouble that comes up. The community has greatly benefitted by having Angelo and Bud Rabska on the job.

While standing still in their car at a stop sign another car crashed into the back of them, injuring both severely and it may be necessary to wear the braces for six weeks. We sincerely hope it will not be that long and there is no need to tell them to keep their chins up, eh?

Recovering

Young Larry Free is coming along very well, according to his mother, which is real good news and if he is a good boy he might have his cast off in a couple of weeks, just as a trial and to see how things look underneath. That will be a day for celebration, says Larry. He was hurt in a automobile mishap near his home some time ago.

Improving

Saw Mrs. Ethel Vernon walking with her dog the other day. That, I think, should be a sign that there is some improvement. We sincerely hope so as we missed her for a few days on the commons at Tahoe City.

Progress

Talking of Tahoe City, I was looking around that fair city and was surprised to see so many buildings going up and some have sprung up within the last few weeks. Lots of painting being done. Sometime when there, stand over from the Tahoe Inn, which is really beautiful. More pictures are taken of visitors standing by the totum pole. I talk of it now as I did not have the time to look around this summer.

Water Carriers
Past and Present

About 1600 A. D. when all the water for London's inhabitants was carried from the Thames, its tributaries, and from wells, there were about 4,000 water carriers who organized their own guild and were powerful enough to keep private citizens away from the sources of water. Later conduits were laid to bring water from the suburbs to public cisterns and as these became adequate for the growing population there were violent struggles among the water carriers, so that it became necessary to issue special orders to prohibit the use of weapons in securing a place in the lines. There is no fighting or waiting in lines for water today. An adequate supply of fresh, pure water is delivered to the most convenient places in your home at reasonable prices. Your Utility District is constantly striving to develop and maintain a sufficient supply of good, pure water to meet the present and future needs of the inhabitants of the District.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Recently in perhaps somewhat of a spirit of levity, there was described in this column "The Case of the Belled Coyote", depicting a foible of the state department of fish and game which admitted trapping eight coyotes, hanging bells around their necks, and turning them loose as an experiment in migration study.

Mention was made of the fact that even coyotes have to eat, and that the bell would serve as a warning to the natural prey of the animal, resulting in the coyote, instead of providing pertinent information on its following of the deer herds, eventually starving to death.

And this is exactly what happened. A mining claim operator in Trinity county found a starving coyote, almost dead, took it to his cabin and tried to revive it. The coyote was "belled" with one of the state department of fish and game's little tinklers. The animal had been hungry for so long it died.

Now one coyote more or less won't make much difference, in fact, there are many ranchers, sportsmen and others who wish the breed would disappear completely.

However, the dispatching of any animal of any breed on behalf of useless experiments smacks of cruelty when the life of the animal is prolonged by the slow torture of starving to death. Apparently, the laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals do not extend to the bureaucrats in the department of fish and game, which is headed by Seth Gordon, the so-called "conservationist" from Pennsylvania.

Even the miner who found the emaciated animal had some sympathy for the creature. He was quoted as saying:

"It was the most sadistic thing I've ever seen."

Undoubtedly, if the state's trappers look hard enough, they will find the other seven coyotes dead of starvation someplace along the line, but on the other hand, they may never be found in the rugged country of Trinity county.

Just why nobody in the division of fish and game, which is supposed to know more than ordinary people about the eating habits and the food of California's animals, never thought that the belled coyotes would starve to death before they contributed anything to science, is a good question. Apparently, the theorists are too imbued with probable outcomes of their questionable experiments to give thought to the practical matters concerned

GAP ON STREET AS LAST OF SP HOTEL IN NEW LOCATION

There is quite an unusual gap between the Southern Pacific depot and the fire station on the main street.

Workers last week moved the final section of the S. P. Motel from where it had stood for more than 50 years to its new location on Bridge Street.

There is considerable speculation but no definite conclusion regarding the future use for the site now strangely vacant. Rumors persist that a service station will be erected still others promise a business block and others a parking lot. Southern Pacific officials, recently visiting here, could give no answer to the question.

The old structure is being remodeled in its new location and will be opened as soon as possible as a hotel, the owners, Paul Wierdman and Jack Wittmier declared. Application for a on-sale liquor license for the establishment has been applied for by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Redmond currently operating the Traveler Cafe here.

While the coyote incident in itself is not highly important, it nevertheless brings up another good question, and that is how long Governor Goodwin J. Knight intends to permit the department of fish and game to function under the direction of an imported conservationist, whose spending proclivities have run the entire fish and game function into a deficit.

From casual observation, it might be concluded that if the department confined itself to carrying out the strict provisions of the law, and paid more attention to enforcement, particularly in areas where there is supposed to be no hunting, it could operate within the funds provided by the sportsmen of California through license purchases.

HIGH COST OF FISH MANAGEMENT GETS OFFICIAL SCRUTINY

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The high cost of fish and game management by the state of California came under study as the senate interim committee on fish and game began hearings to arrive at recommendations for the 1957 legislature.

The committee, headed by Ed C. Johnson of Marysville, received reports from Seth Gordon, director of the state department of fish and game, and other department officials, concerning federal aid for wildlife in California and how the state department used federal funds.

Members of the committee quizzed Gordon, Ben Glading, chief of the department's game management branch, and Alex Calhoun, chief of the department inland fisheries branch, in an effort to determine how much the department's research programs cost, and what the value of the research is once it has been completed.

"An awful lot of money is being spent on research," commented J. Howard Williams, committee member from Tulare county.

Johnson asked if the state department of finance merely acted as a "rubber stamp" in approving wildlife expenditures recommended in the fish and game department's budget each year.

T. H. Mugford, deputy director of finance, stated such was not the case.

Mugford declared "we are all in favor of more strict budget control if that is the wish of the legislature."

Calhoun explained that the fish and game department must sometimes study a proposed project for years and that the research must necessarily be long. He said the department did not quit when a project was completed, but went

State Parks Authorized To Remove Parked Cars

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Attorney General Edmund G. Brown ruled today that the state park commission has authority to remove automobiles left parked in state parks after closing hours.

Brown pointed out, however, that car parking conditions in various state parks throughout California differ, and that regulations adopted by the commission to remove parked cars must be "reasonable".

Dewitt Nelson, state director of natural resources, requested the opinion.

Six Accidents Are Reported On Road

Six automobile accidents were reported in this area during the week by Sergeant Frank Snyder of the California Highway Patrol.

The most spectacular of the six occurred at Hirschdale Friday at 8 a.m. when a Consolidated Freight Lines truck operated by Clarence Fashbaugh of Lone Pine crashed into the rear of a house trailer being towed by Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Reefman of Fremont, Michigan.

The car and trailer were shoved a distance of 50 yards up the road, but fortunately no one was hurt. Traffic was tied up for about an hour. Fashbaugh was cited by Patrolman T. F. Sheehan and Sgt. Snyder for speeding and not having his truck under control.

Two people were hurt Wednesday three miles east of Hirschdale when a car driven by Lamar Davis, 30, Nixon, Nevada, got out of control and left the road and overturned. The driver and Ben Davis were injured. Patrolman Carroll Maynard cited Davis for speeding, being on the wrong side of the highway and not having his car under control.

Also Wednesday at 3:45 p.m. at Hirschdale a car driven by Michael E. McLean of Los Gatos, careened off the highway but the driver was not injured. He was cited by Patrolman William Gautsche for not having his car under control and for speeding.

Cars driven by William Leon Miller, Auburn and William R. Boughton, Santa Benicia collided Saturday three and a half miles west of Soda Springs. No one was hurt. Miller was given a ticket by Patrolman Maynard for following too close behind another vehicle.

John Milton Edd of Nevada City told Patrolman Gautsche he fell asleep while driving near Kingsvale Monday at 4:45 a.m. and his car ran off the road. He was cited for speeding.

Gary Hulbert, 15, Tahoe City suffered severe injuries when a vehicle driven by his father, Thomas Hulbert failed to make a turn near Carnelian Bay and the car ran off the road. Patrolman Martin Sturcke issued a ticket for speeding.

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

THE MIGHTY MAGIC OF LOKI PRODUCED ANOTHER TERRIFYING ILLUSION THAT HAD ENVELOPED KING BALDAR IN A WALL OF FIRE!

"NOW!" LOKI CACKLED IN A MOMENT OF TRIUMPH. "KILL THE EVIL ONE-- BEFORE YOU ALL ARE CONSUMED BY FLAME!"
